

Wallingford Police Department

PRESS RELEASE

The Wallingford Police Department is pleased to announce the addition of our newest police officers: Zoe Miller, Brianna Nugent, and Hannah Jalowiec.

The three officers were sworn in today and will begin their Basic Recruit Training at the Meriden Police Academy this Friday.

Hannah recently graduated from Eastern Connecticut State University with a degree in Criminology and Sociology, Zoe holds a degree in Criminology from the University of New Haven, and Brianna graduated from Rivier University with a degree in Homeland Security and Emergency Management.

We welcome them to the Wallingford community and wish them the best in their training at the POST Academy.
