Wallingford Police Investigate Robbery at Local Gas Station

On October 10th 2021 around 8:16 PM, Wallingford Police officers responded to Gulf Gas Station (1195 North Colony Road) for a robbery at knife point. Officers were unable to locate the suspect, who made off with an undisclosed amount cash from the register. No injuries were reported and no arrest was made at this time.

Initial investigation revealed that a younger medium skinned male suspect, approximately 6 feet tall, entered the store wearing a blue hoodie, a gray sweater over it, a black mask, and blue jeans. The suspect entered the store, approached the clerk, brandished a knife, held it to the clerk's lower back, instructed the clerk to open the cash register, and told the clerk to lay on the ground. The suspect then took money from the register and fled the scene on foot.
